

Show how you inspire people to live healthier lives. Become an ANA Health PartnerSM.

Over 60% of Americans suffer from one or more chronic diseases, and over 70% are overweight or obese. Science shows us that personalized nutrition holds the greatest power to help reverse this crisis.

Now more than ever, consumers are searching for science-backed, good-for-your-health products and services. Becoming an American Nutrition Association Health PartnerSM shows people that your company has made a commitment to a healthy society, powered by nutrition.

The American Nutrition Association is the gold standard for the unbiased science and practice of Personalized Nutrition. Partner with us as we:

Educate health professionals and the public
Certify health professionals in nutrition practice
Advocate to expand nutrition in public policy
Connect the nutrition ecosystem

Show your commitment to a healthy society and become an American Nutrition Association Health PartnerSM.
